8. The Applicant Companies filed clarificatory note vide Diary No. 01223/2 dated 03.10.2024 stating that under the Companies Act, 2013, the territorial jurisdiction of any bench of the NCLT is derived on the basis of the registered office of the Applicant Company on the date, when such company is before the respective bench of the NCLT. There is no concept of the jurisdiction on the basis of any cause of action or eventuality such as the 'Appointed Date'. This issue has been settled by the Hon'ble NCLAT, Delhi in its decision dated 09.03.2017 in

Company Appeal (AT) No. 03 of 2017 in 63 Moons Technologies Ltd. vs. Union of India', wherein it has been observed that the benches of the Hon'ble NCLT can exercise jurisdiction over the concerned companies, which is present within its territorial jurisdiction. As Therefore, the registered offices of the Applicant companies 1, 3-13 and 15-18, as on date, are situated within the State of Haryana and therefore, it is only this Bench, which has the jurisdiction over all the Applicant Companies and the registered office of the Applicant Companies 1, 3-13 and 15- 18 as on the date of the 'Appointed date' has no bearing in deciding the jurisdiction of the bench of the NCLT.

9. In the hearing dated 04.10.2024, the Applicant Companies sought time to seek instructions regarding the jurisdiction of this Bench in respect of Applicant Company 1 on the date of filing of the Application and in the hearing dated 13.11.2024 sought liberty to file compendium of judgment, which was filed vide Diary No. 01223/3 dated 13.11.2024 stating that the jurisdiction of the Applicant Companies is to be determined when it comes up for hearing and not as on date of the institution of the Application. The present matter was heard for the first time on 10.05.2024, when all the Applicant Companies were within the territorial jurisdiction of this Tribunal. Moreover, all the effective order has been passed by this bench only after the registered office of the Applicant Company No.1 has been transferred within the jurisdiction of this bench Therefore, the present application is well within the jurisdiction of this bench. The Applicant Companies have relied on the following judgements of Hon'ble Supreme Court:

(i) Jindal Vijaynagar Steel (JSW Steel Ltd.) vs. Jindal Praxair Oxygen Co. Ltd.

(2006) 11 SCC 521, relevant extract of the same is reproduced below-

*"65(i) That at the time the question of jurisdiction was heard and gone into and decided by the Bombay High Court, the registered office of the Appellant had been shifted and was in fact situated in Mumbai. The Bombay High court in Fazlehussein Haiderbhoy Buxamusa vs. Yusufally Adamji, para 2 held that (AIR pp.55-56) Even if the Court had jurisdiction to entertain the suit as filed, if by reason of subsequent events the Court has lost jurisdiction to entertain or try the suit, the Court will not be justified in dealing with the suit with reference to circumstances as they existed at the date of the institution of the suit, but must proceed to decide the dispute on the footing that if the suit had been filed at the later date, the Court would have been incompetent to grant the reliefs in respect of the properties and of the persons who are not within the limits of the jurisdiction of the Court. Normally a court must have regard to circumstances existing as at the date when the issue of jurisdiction is tried and must decide it in the light of circumstances existing as at that date.

82. The said two judgements are therefore clearly distinguishable. It is submitted that the judgement of Bombay High Court in Fazlehussein vs. Yusufally(Supra) clearly applies to the facts of the present case."

(ii) Sudhir G. Angur & Ors. v. M. Sanjeev & Ors. (2006) 1 SCC 141, the relevant para of which is reproduced below-

"11. In our view, Mr. G.L. Sanghi is also right in submitting that it is the law on the date of trial of the suit which is to be applied. In support of this submission, Mr. Sanghi relied upon the Judgement in Shiv Bhagwan Moti Ram Saraoji vs. Onkarmal Ishar Dass wherein it has been held that no party has a vested right to a particular proceeding or to a particular forum. It has been held that it is well settled that all procedural laws are retrospective unless the legislature expressly states to the contrary. It has been held that the procedural laws in force must be applied at the date when suit or proceeding comes on for trial or disposal. It has been held that a court is bound to take notice of the change in the law and is bound to administer the law as it was when the suit came up for hearing. It has been held that if a court has jurisdiction to try the suit, when it comes on for disposal, it then cannot refuse to assume jurisdiction by reason of the fact that it had no jurisdiction to entertain it at the date when it was instituted. We are in complete agreement with these observations as stated above, the Mysore Act now stands repealed. It could not be denied that now the court has jurisdiction to entertain this suit."
